

An Exclusive Evening for Saint Agnes School Parents

Saint Agnes School Presents

John Crudele, CSP, is a nationally acclaimed speaker, author and youth expert who works to equip families with practical tools to confront the challenges of new media in a secular age. John offers clear and concrete ideas to help parents successfully navigate the varied forms of media in the lives of their children.

John Crudele

Managing Media in the Lives of Your Children: Practical Tips for Parents

Wednesday, February 1

7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Schuler Hall

Discover user-friendly parenting skills to help you overcome the destructive influences of social media, cyber bullying and habitual texting, maintain open and effective lines of communication, and restore confidence in the influence you have on your children.